Scripture: 2 Thessalonians 3:1-5

OVERVIEW

Prayer is a very important and indispensable means of grace. God, through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, has given believers direct access to Him. And there is a crucial element of prayer that must be held onto; that being: The Lord should be our ultimate focus as we pray for one another.

CORROBORATING TEXTS

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; Ephesians 6:12; Jude 24-25; Philippians 2:12-13; Proverbs 3:5-6

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Paul asks for the church in Thessalonica to pray for him. What about this request is powerful or encouraging?
2. What tends to be the main focus of our prayers?
3. One of the most common asks among believers is “Would you please pray for me?” What are we actually asking for?
4. Why would you ask someone in your church to pray for you? What are you expecting?
5. What should spur us on to pray more and more for one another?
